She's studied art, screenwriting, and film production, but she realized her real passion was writing stories for children. She's the New York Times and USA TODAY bestselling author of the award-winning middle grade series, Keeper of the Lost Cities, as well as the Sky Fall series for young adults. Her books have been featured on multiple state reading lists, published in numerous countries, and translated into many different languages.

Keeper of the Lost Cities (1): Messenger, Shannon ...

Keeper of the Lost Cities is not your average middle grade read. This is an immersive, well-built, and well-told tale that caters to a middle grade audience mostly due to its 12-year-old protagonist, Sophie Foster. It's not overly simplified. In fact, at times it was more emotionally poignant than some YA fantasies.

Keeper of the Lost Cities is one of the best series debuts I've read in a long time. It combines the tales of fascinating stories of old, such as Atlantis, with modern-day worries and places seamlessly. It is a wonderful tale of determination and magic. Sophie Foster is a child genius who's been avoiding unwanted attention her whole life.
