European Union-NATO relations - Wikipedia

The European Union and NATO have gone through the most acute strategic challenges of the Euro-Atlantic space together. Their history of cooperation is long and has seen both ups and downs. Already in 1949, the two defence players in western Europe, NATO and the Western Union (later the Western European Union), had begun to interact.

Understanding EU-NATO cooperation: Theory and practice ...

The North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) was created in 1949 in order to establish an alliance driven by the United States against the Soviet Union. In the middle of the Cold War, the Americans wanted to base their defence in Europe and secure the borders at the "Iron Curtain". NATO's principle is its Article 5. It consists in saying that if a NATO country is attacked, all others should consider themselves as attacked and thus come to the rescue.
