Pastry is a term that can mean many things. It refers to a specific type of dough—like the one used to make pies, tarts, and quiche—but it also refers to a category of baked goods, such as the ones you buy with your coffee in the morning. There are many different types of pastry doughs, and even more varieties of pastries if you take into consideration all the regional variations across ...

Sift the lucuma and maca powder together. Prepare a classic French meringue: whisk the egg whites to soft peaks, add the sugar and continue whisking till the mixture is stiff, glossy and just leaves the edges of the bowl. Rain in the powders and incorporate them. Let the whisk turn at its slowest speed for a few seconds or the mix will collapse ...
